The Three Rivers Singers, Inc., Rome's community chorus, was organized in the spring of 2000, under the direction of Dr. Brian Horne, to provide the Rome area with opportunities for local singers to participate in choral music and to add to the cultural richness of the community.

In addition to regular fall, winter and spring concerts, the chorus has performed with other groups such as the Northwest Georgia Winds and the Rome Symphony Orchestra. They are committed to reaching out to the community by involving school groups in their concerts and performing for local assisted living facilities.

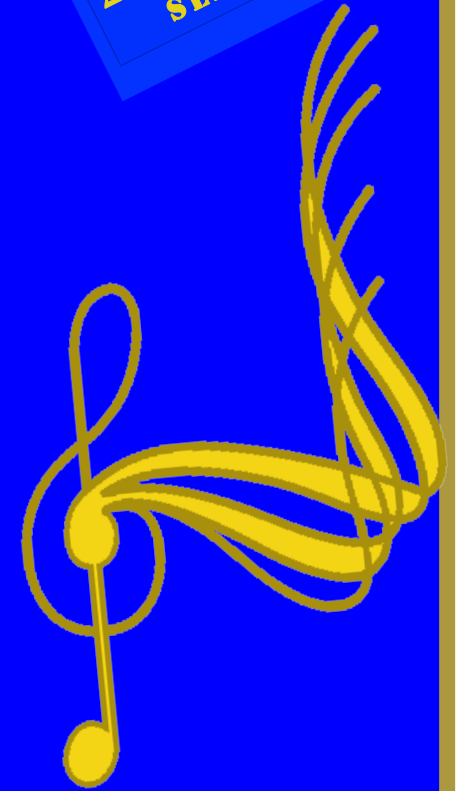

The singers represent a variety of vocations, economic and educational levels and musical abilities. They travel from Rockmart, Calhoun, Cedartown, and Summerville, Georgia, and from Centre, Alabama, as well as from Rome and Cave Spring. All share the love of creating beautiful music.

Rehearsals are held weekly on Tuesday nights from August to May. Those wishing to join or needing more information, may find us on Facebook, email 3RiversSingers@hughes.net, call 706-232-7411 or go to:

ROME GEORGIA'S COMMUNITY CHORUS

Len Willingham, music director, is a Rome native with a Bachelor of Music from Berry College and a Masters in Church Music from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He retired as Minister of Music from First United Methodist Church in Rome in 2010, after serving in churches in Georgia, Kentucky and Virginia. Len has served as Adjunct Music Faculty at Georgia Highlands College, having directed the Shorter University Chorus in 2010-2011. In addition, he has performed bass solos in numerous works, worked with singers of all ages, preparing soloists for works by Handel, Bach, Menotti, Rutter, Britten and Schwartz, and for All State auditions at various levels. He also has taught private voice lessons and has received numerous awards and honors related to his musical endeavors.

Joan Hill is a graduate of Shorter College with a Bachelor of Music degree in organ performance. She also earned a Master of Music in organ performance from East Carolina University, and did additional graduate study, including performance concert, at Southern Baptist Seminary. Joan has been organist at churches in Georgia, Kentucky, and North Carolina, as well as accompanying choirs, ensembles, and soloists in churches, schools, and communities. She is currently organist at First Baptist Church in Rome. She retired in 2010 after 24 years of teaching public school music.
